Sh. Vinod K.P. | Term Loan

Sh. Vinod KP, S/o Sh. Raju, Kalladayil, Alattil PO, Wayanad, Kerala belongs to Christian Community. After class 10th he could not continue his studies due his economic condition, therefore he decided to start a business. But there was no source of funds to fulfill his aspirations. He decided to approach banks for a loan but high interest rates and complex formalities disappointed him. At that time he came to know about Kerala State Backward Class Development Corporation (KSBCDC), a State Channelizing Agency of NMDFC and its attractive loan schemes.

He applied for Term Loan and was sanctioned Rs. 5,00,000/- under NMDFC scheme in July 2021. He then started his dream business of Mini Supermarket at Irumanathoor, Alattil. Now Vinod is very happy because his business has a monthly turnover of Rs. 3,00,000/- and also he has given employment to one person. He gets a monthly profit of more than Rs. 50,000/-. He is highly thankful to KSBCDC and NMDFC for providing him livelihood support.

Masooda Bano | Term Loan

Massoda Bano, a resident of Kupwara, Jammu and Kashmir belongs to Muslim Community. She always aspired to run a school but she did not have capital and Entrepreneurship skills to fulfill her ambition. She happened to hear about Jammu & Kashmir Entrepreneurship Development Institute (JKEDI), a State Channelizing Agency of NMDFC.

She applied for a Term Loan and was sanctioned Rs. 5,00,000/- under NMDFC Term Loan scheme. With the help of this assistance and Entrepreneurship Development Programme from JKEDI she has successfully set up and is running a school namely "My Dolphin Public School" in Kupwara District. This school is not only helping in nation building but is also giving employment to about 15 persons.
